

Just as a supermarket consumer can pick and choose which products to buy, so should a cable or satellite consumer.
Why must we be forced to buy "pickles, yogurt, squash and string beans" when all we want is "milk."
It's simply unfair to have to pay for channels one doesn't want.